

RAW Compliance

ABOUT US

RAW Compliance grew from a passion to bring positive changes through empowerment to the global compliance community.

Mission Statement:

To build a supportive global compliance community, which empowers members through the collaboration of shared learnings and experiences, to drive innovative thinking and change for credible and sustainable advancements in our industry which at its core influences the right compliance culture and behaviours.

Our aim is to empower our members with the necessary skills and knowledge to be able to deconstruct the traditional risk controls and make innovation change.

WE OFFER

RAW Compliance is a global community for compliance professionals to develop new skills, learn from one another, collaborate, explore innovation in compliance risk management, and drive the right compliance culture change through:
